Gentlemen,

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter dated the 17th Decr. 1919 quoting the estimated cost of Jewels of the Ghandabherunda order of the II, III & IV Classes, I am directed to place an order with you for the following Jewels at the cost noted against each:-

	Class.	Cost as per your estimate.		Cost approved by Govt.
One Ghandabherunda Jewel	II	Rs.1750	..	Rs.1750
One do. do.	III	" 735	..	" 735
Two do. do.	IV	" (i.e. a pair of bangles) 1250	..	The cost to be reduced as far as possible to the original price of Rs.500 each bangle as per our personal conversation.

As already stated in my previous letter the jewels should be of the approved pattern and the gold and gems used should be of the ~~first~~ best quality. If, however, you want any further particulars kindly let me know early. I presume that sketches of the 3 classes of jewels will be available with you as you have supplied such jewels to Govt. on previous occasions.

Please arrange to have the 4 jewels

Dear sir,

We are in receipt of yours No.1040/CB 123-19-5 dated the 24th ultimo for which we tender you our very best thanks. We extremely regret not having acknowledged receipt of this earlier and we trust you will pardon us for our seeming negligence. We have much pleasure in noting that you require the following jewels of the II, III& IV class of the Ghandabherunda order at the prices quoted in yours under reply. We further note that the jewels are to be of the approved pattern and similar to those supplied on former occasions with reference to the standard of gold and the quality of gems used. We will as desired endeavour to let you have this as soon as possible and further note that you will like to have them by the end of April 1920.

In conclusion we would like to mention that we have always experienced difficulty in getting the small gems especially rubies and emeralds as well as lolak drops which are required for the II & III class orders.

Dear Sir,

With reference to the quotations of the jewels of the 9x Gandabherunda Order we beg to bring to your kind notice that since submitting our quotations for them the exchange rate has gone very low. At the ruling market of precious stones &c we would be able to supply the jewels required at 10% less than our previous quotation and as such we trust that our quotations will meet your kind approval. We would therefore, request you that you will be good enough to favour us with your formal and favourable orders either partly or wholly, if possible. Thanking you for your kind and continued patronage.

The Chief Secretary,

to the Govt. of H.H. the Maharajaof Mysore,

B A N G A L O R E.

Dear Sir,

In submitting our account for Rs.6570/- for the supply of jewels of the Order of the Gandabherunda and Distinguished War Service Medals, we beg to draw attention to item one for a jewel of the Second class, the cost of which we have debited at Rs.1855/-, and the last item for making 3 Distinguished War Service Medals of the Second class priced at Rs.660/- each nett. Our original estimate for a jewel of the Second class of the Order of the Gandabherunda was Rs.1750/- and this was what we have charged hitherto. The enormous rise in the cost of diamonds, which is now well over 100 per cent for the smaller sizes, has increased the cost of the manufacture of this jewel to a sum out of all proportion to what it was a year ago; and in like manner owing to the large number of diamonds in the Distinguished War Service Medals of the Second class, the cost now is so high, that we could not undertake to make them again so long as prices of diamonds remain as they are, for less than Rs.750/- nett, and even this would be a low estimate. We have had to charge a little over our old estimate for these jewels as well as for the Second class Order of the Gandabherunda, and which we can assure you does not by a long way recoup us. We therefore trust in the circumstances explained that His Highness' Government will be pleased to sanction the slight increase in charges on this occasion for these two jewels. We might mention, and you no doubt are yourself aware, that Firms at Home will now only accept orders "without engagement," that is to say, they will not bind themselves to estimates owing to the constant fluctuation of prices, and this is especially so in the case of gem-set jewellery, and ourselves when ordering from Home being compelled to accept these terms. We have explained the case as fully as we can, and trust that the slight increase charged for the jewel of the Second class of the Order of the Gandabherunda and for the three Distinguished War Service Medals of the Second class may be passed for payment.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
